

Third Rate Romance

G D
Sittin' at a tiny table in a ritzy restaurant

D
She was staring at her coffee cup

D G
He was trying to keep his courage up by applyin' booze

G
The talk was small when they talked at all

D
They both knew what they wanted

D
There was no need to talk about it

D G
But they were old enough to scope it out and keep it loose

B Em C
She said you don't look like my type but I guess you'll do

[chorus]

G D G
Third Rate Romance Low Rent Rendezvous

B Em C
He said I'll even tell you that I love you if you want me too

G D G
Third rate romance, low rent rendezvous

G

When they left the bar they got in his car and they drove away

D

He drove to the family inn. She didn't even have to pretend she didn't know what for

D

G

G

And then he went to the desk and made his request while she

D

Waited outside

D

He came back with the key and she said give it to me and I'll

G

Unlock the door

B

Em

She kept saying I've never really done this kind of thing before

C

Have you?

[chorus]
